

ECUMENICAL ADVOCACY ALLIANCE

CHURCHES' WEEK OF ACTION ON FOOD

BUILDING RESILIENCE

2014

Mike Garcia/EAA

Liturgy prepared by the Presbyterian Hunger Program (PHP) and the Ecumenical Advocacy Alliance, with special thanks to Bryce Wiebe, PHP and Andrew Donaldson, World Council of Churches.

You are permitted to use all or part of this liturgy provided credit is given to the source.

This liturgy is based on a worship service prepared by the Presbyterian Hunger Program responding to the 2014 theme for Churches Week of Action on Food – Building Resilience. Resilience in relation to food and nutrition security means ensuring that for the long term we have:

- » Resilient livelihoods, communities and relationships
- » Resilient farming production and food chains
- » Resiliency promoted through policy

GATHERING

Wisdom calls out to her children

“Have you learned with my people the way you must go?”

Wisdom gathers to teach us;

“Learn lessons from the land, from the gardens and the fields”

Wisdom sets out a banquet of understanding

“Feast on the harvest of knowledge planted here.”

Learn from the seasons of planting, and be taught by communities who know.

Her children have known struggle and they persevere.

They have seen disaster and have come through. Listen to Wisdom calling to you.

Let us worship God!

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Gracious Creator,

We have eaten our fill of this world's bounty and allowed the leftover to spoil.

Have mercy on us, and help us to take only what we need.

We have used all of our resources, and taken those of others

Have mercy on us, and help us to take only what we need.

We have created disasters in our response to disasters

Have mercy on us, and help us to listen.

We have believed we were right, simply because of our wealth

Have mercy on us, and help us to listen.

We have received more than we need, and rarely given the excess away

Have mercy on us, and help us to share.

We have failed to fix our systems of waste

Have mercy on us, and help us to share.

Come to us, Holy Spirit, and hear our prayers. Forgive us these things and those we have not named. Restore us, O God, and renew our minds, our bodies, and our communities for the work of your justice in this, your world. Amen.

Man - y and great, O God, are your works, Mak - er of earth and sky.
 Zahl - reich und groß ist, Gott, was du schufst, Er - de und Him - mels welt!
 Grant un - to us com - mun - ion with you, O star - a - bid - ing one!

Bless the Lord, O my soul

O Lord my God, you are very great.

You are clothed with honour and majesty,
Wrapped with light as with a garment.

You stretch out the heavens like a tent,

You set the beams of your chariots on the waters,

You make the clouds your chariot,

You ride on the wings of the wind,

You make the winds your messengers,

Fire and flame your ministers.

Refrain : Many and great, O God are your works

O Lord, how manifold are your works!

In wisdom you have made them all;
The earth is full of your creatures.

Yonder is the sea, great and wide,

Creeping things innumerable are there,
Living things both small and great.

There go the ships,

And Leviathan that you formed to sport in it.

These all look to you
To give them food in due season;
When you give to them, they gather it up;
When you open your hand, they are filled with good things.

When you hide your face they are dismayed;

When you take away their breath, they die
And return to their dust.

When you send forth their spirit they are created;
And you renew the face of the ground.

Refrain : Many and great, O God are your works

READING: MATTHEW 25:31-46

³¹ "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. ³² All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, ³³ and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left. ³⁴ Then the king will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; ³⁵ for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, ³⁶ I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.' ³⁷ Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? ³⁸ And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? ³⁹ And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?' ⁴⁰ And the king will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family,^[a] you did it to me.' ⁴¹ Then he will say to those at his left hand, 'You that are accursed, depart from me into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels; ⁴² for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, ⁴³ I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not give me clothing, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.' ⁴⁴ Then they also will answer, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not take care of you?' ⁴⁵ Then he will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.' ⁴⁶ And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

SERMON/HOMILY/REFLECTION

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION:

In the towering cliffs we see your majesty, and on quiet lakes we experience your peace. Revive, O Lord, the lands and fields, the water and air. May the resources we find in it be used for your glory and not for the enrichment of a few.

God, Creator of the land, hear our prayer.

We ask for your blessing upon the farmers of the world, for water and sun, for fertile soil and good health. May they have freedom to till the land for the feeding of their families and their communities. Guide their tending to respect what you have provided for the flourishing of all life.

God, Creator of the first garden, hear our prayer.

God, our provider, pour out your gifts on the communities of the world. May they find harmony in relationship and be sustained by the bounty you have given. Help all communities rely upon each other, so that the needs of all will be met, and hope might be found even in the midst of tragedy. Let them flourish and guide their generosity, that their hospitality might reflect your own.

God, Creator of community, hear our prayer.

May the hand of your justice be made known in our food system. Let the benefits be received by all who participate. Let those who labor, be paid. Let those who grow food, not be made needy. May nourishment reach the hungry, and even the crumbs find mouths to be fed.

God, Creator of justice, hear our prayer.

Bless, to us, food that is wholesome and good. May our tables be filled with the fruits of our local fields. Let all that we eat give life to those who dine, give strength to our bodies, and energy for the work of your justice, peace, and love.

God, Creator of all that there is, hear our prayer.
